

We face the future with HIS INFALLIBLE BOOK OF DIRECTION. It is divinely inspired, (II Tim. 3:16) Spirit revealed, (II Pet. 1:21) complete in revelation, (II Pet. 1: 3-4) and final in authority, (Psm. 119:89). Further, it is the power of regeneration, (I Pet. 1:23) promises light and enlightenment to all, (Psm. 119:130) and is preserved eternally (Matt. 24:35). Man's guide books change and ultimately fail God's marching orders never change nor will ever fail. The more we see defeat as sin surrounds us we run to walk in the illuminating light of God's Holy Word. How comforting to know what He says He will do, for He is God.

We face the future wrapped in HIS INSEPARABLE LOVE. Read Rom. 8:35-39 and you will happily conclude "His love for us is divine, (I John 4:8) perfect, (I John 4:17) already manifested, (I John 4:9) and bestowed, (I John 3:1). We are assured, (I John 16:27) promised never to be separated, (Rom 8:35) and that such love for us is eternal (Jer. 31:3). Whatever evil, man plans for believers in these last days, cannot penetrate the surrounding armor of the love of God.

We will persevere because we have HIS ALL SUFFICIENT GRACE (II Cor. 12:9). Having accepted such an offer, our abounding is guaranteed, (II Cor. 9:8). Jesus will go before us, prepare the way for our steps and nurture us with His grace that passes all understanding. Every need He will supply, every crisis He will face with us. Every battle will be won for He is the Victor and through Him victory is guaranteed.

We face the future surrounded by HIS INCOMPARABLE BLESSINGS, (Eph. 1:3). They are spiritual, innumerable and incomparable. They are freely given for He "freely gives us all things" Rom. 8:32. Let the future come with it's storm clouds of fear and perplexity among man. True believers can rise above, looking for His return and resting in "the hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast" Heb. 6:19. Keep your eyes on Christ, for that is truly the best way to face the future. Praise God!
